Pat's Garden

Pat spent an hour a day working in her garden in Sussex after retirement.
Here are some of the photos she took.

Katharine Patience Hague (1915 – 2008)

There are five presentations on www.archive.org relating to Pat.
The content formed part of a former website dedicated to her.

The five are:

Life Story

Biographical Photos

Paintings

Poetry

Garden in Sussex

Pat wrote about the first part of her life two years before she died.
This was published in 2021 with the title Destiny: My Life from WW1 to WW2.

Viewing

View in “one-page view” (not “two-page view”)

Click “full screen” icon

Click “next page” arrows rather than scrolling down

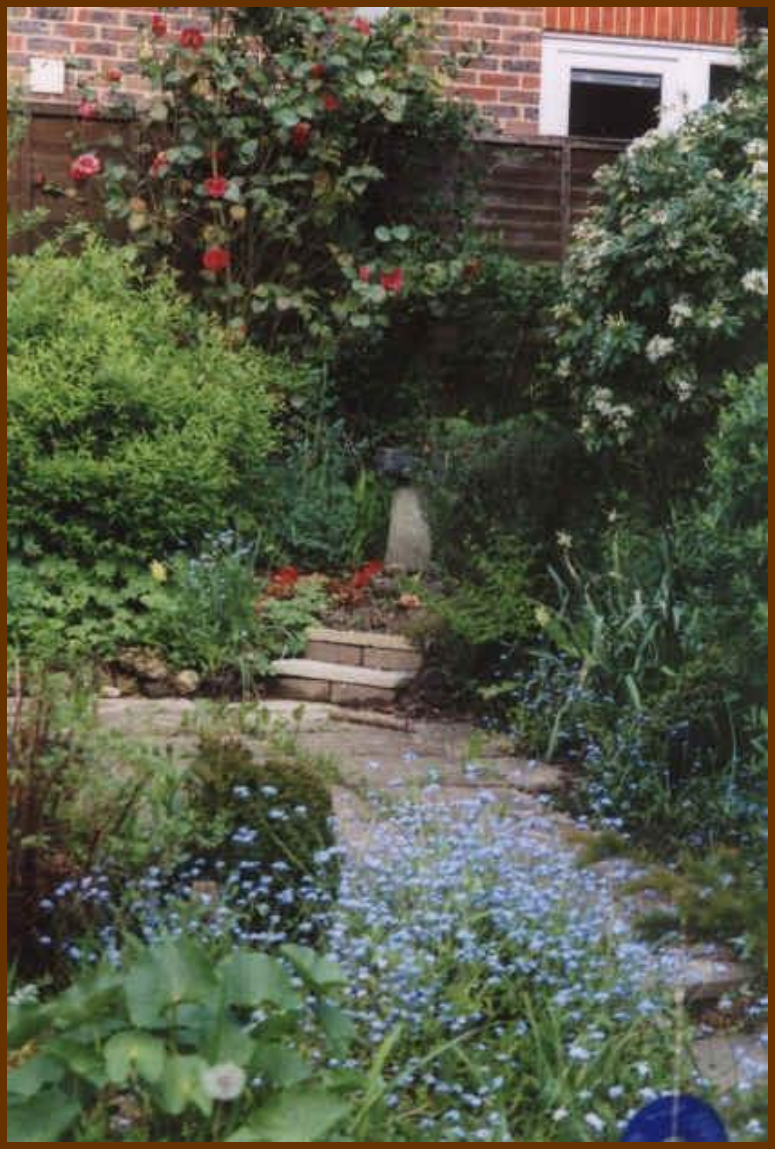
Front Garden

Magnolia, front garden

Back garden, left side

Arch with roses, back garden

Back garden, centre path



Corner terrace, back garden

Pond with kingcups, back garden

Spring garden (bottom of back garden)

View from Patio

Patio

Iris, back garden

Moss rose, back garden

Albertine rose, back garden

Silver birches from her bedroom window

Christmas cactus, inside